GENERAL MAHONE AGAIN

HE ISSUES THAT GREAT ADDRESS.

Beviawing the Causes of the Recent Democratic Victory in Virginia-From a Readjuster Standpoint-Interesting.

PETERSBURG, Va., Nov. 19.—The leng-promised address of Senator Mahone to the Readjuster party, on the results of the recent election in this State, was made public last night. The document contains fully five thousand words, and is evidently intended for the people of the United States, as well as to the party to whom it is addressed. The salient points are as follows: "To the Readjuster Party of Virginia:

"When a dominant party, organized around great and enduring principles, and composed of a decided majority of veters in a State, is suddenly overwhelmed and made to appear a minority, it is of the highest consequence that every member of the party should inform himself whether that result has been brought about by a free and honest expression of the popular will; and if so, which of its avowed principles has become ebnoxions to the majority, or, if all are still adhered to, which of them has been betrayed by those intrusted with the great duty of applying and enforcing them in the government of

"When the Bourbon faction assembled in Lynchburg in July last to formulate a platform, a large element of its membership avowedly and openly favored the adoption of the colorline. Bourbon journals proclaimed that the true issue of the canvass was the race issue, and that the contest should be ferced into a struggle betweed the whites and the hlacks. That such a plank would be incorporated into the platform adopted seemed highly probablo, until the final action taken developed the fact that, for reasons best known to themselves, the Bourbons had determined net to make written proclamation of their purpose to draw the color line. Even tho most moderate Bourbon did net pretend that this failure to draw the color line in the platform sprung from lack of purpose so to do, but it was admitted on all hands that it had not been formally adopted from motives of policy. The temporary cimirman of the Conveation addressed himself to "the white people of Virginia." The progress of the curvass developed an organized system of duplicity practiced by our opponents, whereby, in black districts, they appealed to the blacks for support ou the ground that our party gave them no recogultion and used them as mere tools and catspirws, while at some time, in white districts their appeals were made to every prejudice of race to save the whites from an aileged purpose, on our part, to elevate the blacks above them. Sonsational circulars from Danville, Cumberland and elsewhere filled with fulse statements of wrongs and outrages committed by blacks; cartoons depicting negroes punishing white children; pictures of negro men with a white child on one knee and a black child on the other, infameus perjuries as to the utterances of eur public speakers and lies, groat and small, calculated to influence race prejudice, were spread broad-cast through the white districts of the State, backed by corruption money without stint, while they were studiously suppressed in the black districts and their pbseuce supplied by a double fund of money "buy or bully" the hlneks. The massacre in Danville is dignified by Bourbonism with the name of riot. The facts, as gathered from all sources, are that upon Saturday evening preceeding the election, just after the Danvillo negroes had received their weekly pay and were buying their Sunday supplies in a crowded market place, a white man had an altercation with a negro mid whipped him.

The fight was ended and no other negroes came to the rescue of the punished man, but the programme was not interrupted by this circumstance. An armed gathering of the "best people" and of the "best and bravest" was convenioutly near, and in a moment a murderous throng poured out of the building where they were assembled, opening a dendly fire upon the unarmed, defenseless and flying negroes. How minny were killed no one knows, and no one will probably learn the truth, for the condition of things still in Danville is such that the truth cannot be learned. That they were shot in the backs like dogs while running away; that no pistol shot was fired by days the poor victims were found dead in alleys, in warehouses, and under houses, like poisoned rats that had crawled away to die; that the negroes fled to the woods, to the State of North Carolina, to the four winds of heaven; these are a few of the facts of this bloody, wholesale murder, which was telegraphed far and near by Bourbons as an insolent uprising of the blacks against the whites. Simultaneously with these occurrences the crack of the Bourbon weapon engaged in political murder resounded. The effects were all that the buildozers could have hoped for. In the city of Danville, where Cameron received, iu 1881, votes numbering 789, and Wise, in 1882, received 841 votes and where 1,379 Readjuster votes were enrolled, hut twentysix votes were cast for the Coalition candidate, whose life was threatened and whose coffin, it is said, had been actually made and paid for by the party of honor and influence. * * * * I repeat therefore that the struggle against Bourhonism must be renowed forthwith and that it is a strugglo to the death, and, as your Chairman, I call upon every loyni Readjuster to rally to the standard and reform to fight anew the buttle against their old Bourbon foe in the untional cniu-paign of 1884, bearing in mind the old

watch-word of a 'free ballot and a fair count.' We have a right to demand and expect support from the State, and, if need be, from the Federal Government, in behalf of the rights of man, guaranteed by both Governments, and put at stake to procure the ascendancy of an unscrupuious

a black man; that no white man was injured, save by his own friends; that for party that sticks at nothing to acquire power. WILLIAM MAHONE, Chairman. "PETERSBURG, Nov. 14, 1883."

Damage From High Tides. HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 19.—Telegrams from various points in Kings county report the tides in the rivers during the past week to have been the highest since the grent storm of fifteen years ngo. Much destruction has resulted, whole dikes being carried away in some places and handreds of acres of land and large quantities of salt hny washed away.

BRUTAL MURDER.

Shooting a Defenseless Old Man in

WILKESBARRE, PA., Nov. 19.—An unprovoked and singularly atroclous murder was committed last night at Mill Hollow, s small village a few miles from here. During the evening three or four roughs en-tered a saloon, and, after drinking, begans disturbance. A lively row ensued, in which beer glasses and bottles were used and several pistol shots fired, though no one was seriously hurt. The roughs were finally ejected and congregated on a bridge which spans a little creek close by the saloon. While they were standing there John Clnir, Superintendent of the Weddell Mines, of Mill Hollow, passed by. He is an old gentleman, well known throughout the whole country, and well respected. As he passed the crowd of roughs they assailed him with a storm of jeers and abuse, and one of the gang, named Dennis Keller, shouted to him to go faster or he would shoot. Clair, not thinking that the wretch would carry out his threat, replied good humoredly: "Fire away, Dennis." The words were scarcely out of his month when Keller drew his pis tol and fired four shots in rapid succession at the defenseless old man. Every shol told. One wounded him in the forehead, another in the abdenien, mother in the arm. One shattered his thigh. Clair was hrought to the hespital in this city, where he died last evening. Keller was ar-rested and lodged in jail. The excitement in Mill Hellow last night was intense, and had Keller fallen into the hands of the miners he would probably have been lyuched, as thrents were openly ninde.

PRINTERS' STRIKE.

The American Press Association Refuses to be "Looted."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 19 .- A committee from the typographical union ordered a strike in the American Press Association office, this city, this afternoon, on the ground that the type should be measured minion, although the type used is brevier and more than up to the regulation standard of "fatness." It is claimed that the type should be measured minion, because its face is smaller than regular brevier. The Association has always paid the highest prices in the city, having voluntarily raised the price for composition to 42c, per thousand several months ago, which is two cents mere than is paid anywhere west of New York, "The unreasenable demand was promptly refused, and several of the men were indignant that the union should order a strike on such grounds. The alleged cause is probably hut a subterfuge, while the real object is an effort to cripple the numerous interior daily newspapers depending on the Association for their telegraphic news service, which papers are materially affecting the circulation and profits of the Cincinnnti dailies. The Association will not be crippled but n few days at the most.

Fighting in North Africa,

CAIRO, Nov. 19.—A Jeddah letter received here confirms the report of the death of the British Consul Moncrieff, at Snakim, in the Soudan, and the almost total annihilation of his force of five hundred men, but fourteen of them escaping. Another tribe has revolted, and the situation is daily becoming more critical. Hicks Paslia must return nuless he can receive reinforcements from Sir Evelyn Wood immediately. The whole movement has been instigated by slavers. The fact that no news has been received from Hicks Pasha has caused considerable ninrm, and it is feared that disaster has befallen him.

Fighting with the Africans.

LONDON, Nov. 19 .- Advices from tha British fleet on the West Coast of Africa state that recently 150 English sailors went up the Niger to pursue the natives at different points on that river for outrages upou explorers and traders. After shell ing the town of Aboh, at the head of the De ta, they ascended to Egga, a large town 300 miles from the mouth of the Niger. Here they landed and were at once attacked by the natives. A fierce fight ensued in which three seamen were killed and several wounded. The attacking party of natives were driven to the bush and the sailors returned to the fleet.

The Pope Gratified.

Rome, Nov. 18.—The Pope has expressed much satisfaction over the recent proclamation of Orange meetings in Ireland by the British Government. He attributes this action to the efforts of Mr. Erriugton, the British representative at the Vatican, and has personally thanked that gentleman. Father O'Callaghan, rector of the English Coilege at Rome, has been appointed domestic prelate to the Pope.

German Peddier Murdered,

A Quiet Neek Where Besten Dames Boor and Puff the Entica ing Cigaratte.

"Nelse," a correspondent of The Et. Paul Pronous From weiting from Boston mys:"
"It made a discovery the other day that rather surprised" me, and at the same time me to thinking. This discovery was nothing less than of a returns where throughcut the day and evening thirsty female souls congregate in large numbers and pay all homage due to glorious King Gambrinus. Weinen in barrooms is not an uncommon night in Boston, but a beer saloon entirely supported by respectable women-and there is no doubt as to the respectability of mes of them—has, up to the present time, been quite unknown here.

"I stopped finide, when, to my astenish ment, a vision, not altogether of loveliness, but one of famininity hurst upon me. The place was not large, but there were some two dosen ladics of all ages and positions in life present, sitting at tables and guarded by mugs of foaming lager beer, which they were husily engaged in drinking. Upon my entrance the hum of conversation had ceased, and two dozen pair of eyes, some bleared, I am sorry to say, were turned upon me. Finding that I was safe in the clutches of the waiter girl, they soon returned to their beer and eigarettes One-half the ladies were gently puffing away at cigarettes in a manner quite proper. Some of them were expert enough to blow protty little rings of smoke that sailed up into the air, and, watched by the fair maker, broke and then disappeared. At two of the tables the smoke was so thick as to almost hide the faces of the smokers. I was greatly amused in watching one of the ladice taking her first lesson in smeking. She put the cigarette daintly between her red lips and touched n match to it as if she was afraid it would explode like a fire-cracker, "pulled" away, st, it with all her strength. But she was inexperienced and "pulled" too hard, for the smoke went down into her lungs, cheking her and eausing considerable commotion for Such chattering and bursts of laughter! It was talk, talk, talk, singularly and collect-lively, with no intermission for rest. And the subjects. They reached from re-ligion and fashion to art and poli-tics. Each related her experiences while shopping that day, and told of the great bargains she saight have obtained "if she only had the money." The latest gossip was retailed in the most interesting manner, with spicy personal comments. All present seemed to be convivial spirits. I noticed the manner in which they disposed of their beer. They did not pour it down their threats man fashion, but sipped it as one would wine.

Another thing I noticed was that each paid for her own refreshment, and that "treatlng" evidently was not popular with them. None seemed ill at ease, and, on the contrary, sppeared to be quite at home. Two glasses was about the limit of individual indulgence. although I saw one stout matron dispose of five beers in comparatively quick succession. There was no boisterousness, rough ex-pressions or actions, and, to tell the truth, they were as well behaved as if they one who appeared "off color." Americans predominated. All were well dressed, many of them wearing costly silks and valuable iewelry. Some were undoubtedly methers ethers daughters of well-to-do people. They came and went, bidding good-by to friends, and promising to see them at some later day in the same place. They generally came in in pairs, and seating themselves at a table, would heave a sigh of thankfulness for at last being able to sit down and rest, and would then order a "Boston" or an "after tea." An "after tea" I found to be a small glass of beer, while a "Toston" was n little larger.

Occasionally a dame of mature years would call for a little claret or sherry, and I am sorry to say that one of the women ordered a gin fizz. This one, however, was the girl who was a little "off color." Lunch was frequently ordered with the beer. Men with female companions also dropped in, and oocasionally a lone representative of the sterner sex made his appearance, and was cared for after the same manner, as I had been. There is one thing I can my truthfully, in additions to what I have already related, and that is that the beer was of the best quality. Perhaps this is one reason that the place is so popular with the women. But is the idea likely to grow! I think it is. In my opinion the time will come before long when bar-rooms for the exclusive patronnge of wemen will be quite common. I am led to believe this from what I have seen and from statements recently made by a prominent physician of this city. This gentleman has a large practice among the upper classes, and it was with every appearance of sincerity that he told me a short time ago that drinking among women was alarmingly upon the increase. He has several wealthy patients whom he treats for dipsomauia, or in other words, for tippling.

TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

CONCORD, N. 11., Nov. 19 .- Fin Butterfield teils a thrilling story of his experience in the Maine woods during Monday's gale. He was on a hunting expedition with Smith West and two companions, and last Monday was encomped at the head-waters of the Piessant River, ten miles south of the Mooschead Lake. The wind biew some in the morning, but about noon the fun began. Their eamp blow away and the glaats of the forest began to fall like rain. Tuesday morning they started to get out of what was woods when they went in, taking with them only guns and blankets. The first day they walked nine and ene-half hours and only made two miles, and the second day in eleven and one-half hours they advanced only four miles. They had literally to chop their way ont, and on the second day were met hy a gang of men who had been started in after them, but had only cut a path of five miles in that time. The scene beggared description. Men whose fortuues were in the forests were ruined in a few honrs. One man had four yoke of oxen and five pairs of horses at a camp in the devasted region, nll of which had to be killed as they could not be brought out, ner could food be got to them. The party had an experience which money could not hire them to go

A Japanese Schoolhause. [Yokohama Letter.]

Boside the clear, crystal waters of a running stream and surrounded with lilies, we neticed what we thought to be a schoolhouse and euriosity prompted us to ask admittance. There were some fifteen children in the room, which was furnished with long, plain tables. There appeared to be no eheck upon the children, who were moving about and conversing with each other. The master was teaching the smaller once the charncters of written language by writing them en a blackboard and requiring them to re-peat the sounds indicated by them. Some were engaged in writing upon their slates, others in arithmetical culculations and others In reading and committing to memory from text-books. There seemed to be an entire freedom from restraint, and we are surprised at the happy and conteuted manner in which they pursued their studies. Bright and intelligent little fellows they looked, and from what we have seen of the youth of Japau we are convinced that there is much to be ex-

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 19,-The Walter Emersoa concert troupe gave an entertalament here Saturday evening. Last evening, Wniter Emerson, who is a noted cornet player, left the Vanderbilt House shortly after dark for a walk. In Jefferson street he met Mrs. Thomas M. Fay, and after a "flirtation" she invited him to her rooms nlleging her husband was out of town. Mr. Fay suddenly appeared on the scene and demanded satisfaction and a war of words followed. Emerson accused Fay of putting up a blackmailing scheme. Fay demanded a settlement of the casa. Emerson, how ever, seemed so determined that he was allowed to leave the house. He reported the matter to the police who arrested Mrs. Fay. Mr. Fay escaped and Emerson did not press the matter and Mrs. Fay was only charged with street strolling and fined $25

Bar king of the United States-A Good Shewing. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19 .- A portion of the annual report of the Comptroller of the Currency Knox has been made public. It shows that the amount of United States bonds held by the national banks and by

Lanks organized under State laws, and by private bankers in twenty-two States; on November 1, 1883, was $211,742,900. From dntn relating to unredeemed hank notes which has been carefully compiled, the Controller estimates that the gain which will nrise from the loss of unredeemed notes of National banks, will be from one to one and one-half per cent, on notes, having a circulation of twenty years. A table is given shewing the amount of capital deposits, and capital invested in bonds hy private bankers in sixteen of the principal cities of the country. The total number of private bankers in these cities is 749, with an nggregate enpital of $66,366,-845, and aggregate deposits of 104,445,338, the average cupital being $84,912, and the average deposits $139,446. About sixtyeight per cent. of these private banks are located in New York City, representing more than three-fourths of the aggregate cupital and over one-half of the aggregate deposits. In the city of New York the average mnount of capital is $102,289 and deposits, $109.814 for each private banker; and the bankers in that city also held $7,-920,5-15 of United States bonds, or over onehalf of the mnount of such bonds held hy ail of the private bankers of the country. A table is presented which gives similar information for the thirty-four States and Territories (exclusive of these sixteen principal cities) of the private banks having a capital in excess of $100,000. In this table the number of private bankers is placed at 2,611, and the eggregate amount of capital $38,583,964, and of deposits $191,270,757, the average capital being $14,258 and the nvernge deposits $60,800. The Savings Banks leposits of 630 banks for 1883, based upon reports made to State authorities, are $1,-021,856,787, and the deposits of the State Bunks and Trust Companies were $50,374,217. Those returns do not include bank deposits. The deposits of the National banks on October 2, 1883, inclnsive of those due to banks, were $1,063,601,-156. These deposits of the Nutional banks hear to those of the Savings banks the proportion nearly of fifty-one to ferty-nine, and to those of the State banks and Trust companies the proportion of sixty. sight to thirty-two, and to the combined deposits of both the proportion of forty one to fifty-one. The number of open deposit accounts of Savings banks in the New England States is $1,363,997. The average amount of each account is $331.55, and if the total deposits were divided among the entire population the average sum of $113.17 could be given to each individual. The deposits of the savings banks in the State of New York were $413,-147,213, while the population is 5,093,871, showing that nn equal distribution of the saving bank deposits among the entire population of the State would give $81.08 to each individual.

A Wealthy Farmer Swindled.

Indianapolis, Nov. 19.—A forgery amounting to nearly $2,000 committed enriy in the week, was discovered here today. On Tuesday a stranger representing himself as an agent for Fort, Johnson & Co., stock dealers here, negotiated here for the purchase of a car-load of cattle of Eli Swackhamer, a wenlthy farmer of Clinton County, offering in payment a check for $1,845 on Fletcher & Churchman's bank here, signed by the firm. Swackhamer telegraphed to the bank regarding the firm's credit, and the answer came back: ' 'Fort. Johnson & Co. are good for any amount. The cattle were necordingly delivered and brought to this city, where they were sold to the firm for $1,830, and the seller skipped. To-day the firmer discovered that the chock was a forgery, and a very clumsy one at that. The swindler gave the name of John Ziegler. Nobody here has any iden who he is or where he came from.

A Possible topic at the coming session of Congress will be the Cheyonne and Arapahoe Indians' lease of 3,117,800 acres of grazing land at two cents an acre. The syndicate which got the lease, which runs for ten years, have just made the second half-yearly payment, aggregating over $31,000. Every man, woman and child of both tribes was paid $5, the money being in $1 and $2 greenbacks. The next payment wlii be in cattie, as the lease calls for half money and half cattie. which appear in the report of the Surgeon General of the army for the fiscal year that ended June 30, 1883. None are more interesting, however, in tho suggestions involved than that which states that among colored troops there is a larger proportion of the dlseases of the nervous system than among the white. There is a peculiar reason for dwelling upon this feature, seeing that it ls accompanied with the statement that the preponderence remains unexplained. This would imply that an effort had been made to discover the causes, but that these haffied skillful research. The organization of the average white man is commonly supposed to be more susceptible to the encroachment.

THE Wostchester (Pa.) Local says: An interesting Illustration of the manner in which dime navels act upon boys' brains has recently been given at Cleveland, where a boy aged fourteen was the organizer of a secret society, to be called "The Society of the Silver Skulis." The principles set forth by this delightful association included an unmitigated curse upon ali those domestic and frlendly relations which men hold dear, and the invocation of various appalling calamiti s upon whoever should prove a renegade. In the present age there is no reason wly good and entertaining reading should not be furnished to boys and girls of all ages. Never has reading of this kind, intended especially for juveniles, so greatabounded as at present. Never before have so many writers of talent, so many draughtsmen of skill and so many publishers of respectability, backed by money, lent their aid to supplying chiidren with reading matter of the first order. The class of "litorature," iherefore, which comes under the denomination of dime novel ought to die. Those parents must be very unwatchful or extremely foolish who can allow their sons to pursue a course of reading, the tendency of which is to arouse the worse instincts and extinguish all the bost. The Cieveland youth recently disappeared from his home, taking with him two revolvers. This looks as if he were going to join either the cowboys or the Indians, a ilttie fraternization with whom would perhaps dissipate his ideals.

Card from Mr. Tayleure.

MAYSVILLE, November 19, 1883. Editor Bulletin-Dear Sir: A reduction In the price of seats has been suggested There are several strong reasons which forbld my consent. Permlt me to quote Iwo of the wisest practical importance. Flusi, I cannot afford it; I pay Mr. and Mrs. Chanfran considerably over $100 a pight, my company (the best I could procure in New York) travel and printing cost $140 a night tnore; crowd the isall at $1 a seat and I should barely get back my expenses. I visit Maysville almost annally, because I like the iown, but to ask me io confront a certain loss in order to gratify that liking, is neither wise nor fair. A second, and equally potent reason is that I have tried the "reduced experiment, but never with success; and how could I piay for 75 cents here when the same accommodation commands $1 in Lexington and elsewhere. In New York and thereabouis $1.50 is charged for reserved seats. True the scenic equipments, &c., are superior, but to enjoy them the cost of a fare to that city should properly be counted. I am not responsible for the scenic defleencies of your hull, but the same perted States, in accordance with the wish-es of the American Bishops now in north can here be witnessed for 75 and 50 cents. Cheap enough in all reason. Besides one cannot fairly expect to bny silks at prices usually paid for calicoes. I bring here two "stars," and a company crowned with the applause of Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, New Orleans, Lonisville and every other Ameriicancity, and surely they are worth being seen by the intelligent public of Maysville at a less average price than is demunded in the cities named. Respectfully, CLIFTON W. TAYLEUUR.

"PARTED; or the Bankrupt's Wife," will be produced at the ladies' matlnee this afternoon, with Mrs. Chanfrau as Grace Shirley, and Mr. Clifton W. Tayleure, the anthor of the play, as Dorsey, Shirley. The ladies wouldn't of course, miss the opportunity to see some fine acting by eminent artists.

DEPUTY SHERIFF JOHN W. ALEXANDER yesterday received nn Interesting luvitation that reads as follows:

Mr. John W. Alexander, Deputy Sheriff of Mason County, Ky.: You are respectfully invited to be present as a spectator at the execution of Luke Jones and Wm. Jones, the murd-rors of Anderson, Luckey, is the court house yard, Jackson, Ohio, on Friday, Ilec. 21, 1833. Gnards will admit the person named in this invitation. W. B. Chenington, Sheriff, Jackson county, Ohio.

The play last night at the Opera Honse attracted an audience of our most cultivated people, who were delighted with Mrs. Chanfrau's interpretation of the leading character, Isabel Vane, and they are prepared to believe all that the metropolltan press says of this charming and gifted lady. She will appear in "Parted" at the ladies' matlnee this afternoon.

PERSONALS.

Mlss Maggie Scudder is visiting her father, Mr. E. R. Scudder.

Mr. Robert Hall, brother of Prof. C. J. Hall, who visited Maysville several months ago, has been elected State Senstor In Virginla by a handsome unjority.

Iron is lower than after the panie of 1873, and some of the Pittsburg mill owners believe that the duliness in the Iron trade is to be repeated now. They seem fully determined to shut down. There is a report which could not be confirmed, that the Bessemer Steel Company have also ordered their fires out. In the Iron region of Michigan the workman are causing trouble. The depression in trade comes from over-production, which has been rendered easy by increased facilities.

Kit.

Mr. Frank S. Clianfrau will appear a the Opera House this evening in "Kit," which is always a favorite with this communlty, and on this occasion, as on former ones, is certain to draw a crowded house. The following notice of Mr. Chanfrau in this character, is from the Baltimore American, of the 30th of Octo-

Baltimore American, of the 30th of October:

Frank B. Chanfrau produced that old favorlie draina, "alt, the Arkansas Traveler," instever. But Ford's Grand Opera House, and as usual attracted a large andience, in spite of the storm. The old invortes supported bim, and Frank M. Willis land's, P. Conyers, as Judge Buggs and Major Squiggs, were as loily as they have ver been, and as eiger in pursuit of free drinks. Birdie Black, a late of a child, was greatly applanted for her assumption of little Alle, Kit's daughter. In the first act, Miss Lizzle Hight appeared as Kit's wife, and subsequently as his daughter in the latter portion of the drama, the child being supposed to have grown up in the twelve years that have clapsed between the first and second act. The huming of the Medora and the fight with lowls knives between Kit and Manual Bond (Mr. J. Clintou Hall) were great seenes and commanded a storm of applause. The drama, as is well known, was written expressly for Mr. Chanfrau many years ago, by E. Spencer and C. W. Tayleure, of the Bultimore Press.

The Philadelphia Record has the following to say of "Parted; or the Bank-rupt's Wlfe:" rupt's Wife:"

It is a pleasure to note the engagement of Tayleure's Cambination in "Parted." The piece is intensely interesting. The cast exceptionally strong—every part from the highest to the lowest, being filled by an expert. Heurista Chanfran, as "Grace Shirley," is very effective, and demonstrates her right to be ranked with the foremost in the profession. In the third act, where she bids her child kneel and pray that that the enemies of her betrayed father shall be brought to justice, the andience become spell-bound with her hurning eloquence and inimitable acting. Fully two minutes elapsed ere the slightest sound was heard, and then all the pent up entimisasm of the sympathizing assemblage came forth in one long, loud burst of appliance. COUNTY POINTS.

The festival entertainment given for the benefit of the parsonage, by the ladtes of Sardis, on the nights of the 18th and 14th last, were social events most enjoyable. The entire house—the Arcade—had been refitted throughout in superb style, and was pixed at the freedom of the goests, who numbered over one hundred. Representatives from the best circles of society from this and neighboring towns were present. The gentlemen looked their best in their families slyfitling dress suits, while the ladies were bewitching in evening tolics of satin, plush and coally sites, garnished with jewels that were not more dazzling than their pearly teeth and bright eyes. Many wore operabonnels and some of the corsage bounquets displayed by the young ladies, were man an pof the choicest roses. All the rooms were thrown open and well lighted. The lutchelors' parlier was the delightful risort—the new found Mecca of the youthli lovers. The evening was picasantly begulied with music—selections from opera and concert.

INTERESTING CASE.

Lawanit Involving the Estate of the Lais-Madame Benaparte.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 19 .- In the suit of Baltimore City versus Chas. J. Bonaparte, executor of Madame Bonaparte, deceased, involving $20,000 back taxes, Judge Brown has decided that the taxes were not like ordinary claims, which it was necessary to prove before the Court, but it was the duty of the Administrator to pay the taxes without notice. An interesting point was that when personal property, in the State was taxed, and the executor lived in Baltimore county, taxes should be imposed in the place where the deceased resided until a distribution of the property to the heirs was made. There was one portion of the estate consisting of bonds of the city of Philadelphia, and these bonds were exempted from taxation by the laws of Pennsylvania. The defense here contended that as our law exempted State bonds from taxation when evempt by the laws of the State authorizing their issue, it also ought to include city bouds, but Judge Brown decided that it was not so, thereby granting every point in favor of the city.

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

Randail Arrives Early on the Scene-The Situation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.—Additional zest has been given to the Speakership contest by the arrival of Mr. Randall, who visits Washington considerably earlier than he had expected to. In reply to a question he said that he had no cause to feel uneasy about the contest, and that his figures would be found correct when the caucus was held. Representative Morrison, who has come here in the interest of Mr. Carlisie, does not think favorably of Mr. Springer's candidacy, and says that the latter has no following, not even from his own State of Illinois.

Teeng Thinks There Will lie War.

PARIS, Nov. 19 .- The Marquis Tseng, Chinese Ambassador to France, granted an interview to a reporter, in the course of which he officially denied that the United States has over offered to mediate between France and China. The only offer of that nature had come from England and had been rejected by France in such a manner as to probably deter any other power from tendering a similar proposition. He thought the dispute between the two countries could hardly be settled now without war.

An Empty Bettie's Story.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 19.—A young woman stepped into the Barnard House and engaged lodgings for the night. When called to-day she did not respond. In the afternoon the room was broken open, and its occupant discovered dead. An empty bottle labeled "morphine" told the story. She had been an occupant of a bagnio here, and was unusually pretty. She had gone by various aliases, but her real name was Still Holding Out.

"New York, Nov. 19,—The Mail and Express and the Evening Post are still holding out against the demands of the striking printers, and, in front of the lat-ter's office, the sign "Male or Female compositors wanted at 35 cents per 1,000 ems" is still completionally displayed. Mr. Calif-well, proprietor of the Bunday Mercury said that when visited by the Committee of the Union he made the concession de-Mobbing Germans.

DORPAT, LIVONIA, Nov. 19.—An anti-German mob to-day attacked the Gustavus Adolphus University, which is considered to be practically a German institute. They were repulsed by the Poles. Another mob surrounded a statue symbolizing the Rhine, and blew it up with dynamite. These outrages by Pan-Slavists are due to recent German utterances favoring the rehabilitation of the Kingdom of Poland.

Rev. Father Wilds EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, weil-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows 1

setts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

"78 E. 5tth St., New Fork, May 16, 1882.

Messas, J. C. Aven & Cu., (lentlemen:
Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and hurned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe entarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of Aver's Sarsara-Rilla, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the Sarsarahilla, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may de good.

Yours respectfully, Z. P. Wilds."

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfeet adaptability of Aver's Sarsapanilla to the eure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.

The Peculiar Old Mystery!

It was one of the peculiarities of the old-fashioned Doctors that they never would tell patients what they were prescribing for them. They said it would do the patients no good to know, and that it would only be gratifying a foolish curiosity. In order to keep patients from knowing, they would write the prescriptions in dog Latin, so that most patients could not read them. All that sort of thing is now over. The patient wants to know what he takes. He is weak, and wants to be strong, or he is dyspeptic, and wants to digest well. Or he has a troublesome liver which he wants to put to rights. So he takes Brown's Iron Bitters about which there is no mystery at all. This is the best preparation of iron in the world, in combination with gentle yet effi-cient tonics. It gives strength. It builds up enfeebled systems. It enriches impoverished blood. It removes femining weaknesses. It casts out debility It is what wou want, and your druggist, has it. 2
